Some of our DVDs may not play in older DVD players. Refunds can not be given for DVDs that do not work in some DVD players, but work in others. If your DVDs do not work in an old DVD player, either purchase a new DVD player, or try playing the DVD in a computer. This is a common problem with all DVD manufacturing facilities, not just Old School You. Original DVD players are just too old to play newer type DVDs.

Refunds are not accepted once your original conversion box has been sent. If your original conversion box is late or is not received due to USPS,
